

Tasmanian Heritage Services Directory

Application for inclusion

The Tasmanian Heritage Services Directory

The Tasmanian Heritage Services Directory is produced by Heritage Tasmania and the Tasmanian Heritage Council to assist property owners, government, community groups and others seeking heritage specialists.

The Directory will provide contact details and a description of the heritage services provided for professionals, consultants, contractors and specialist tradespeople across a range of categories including architects, engineers, stonemasons, landscape architects, planners, historians, archaeologists and specialists in tourism and interpretation.

It will be made available online at www.heritage.tas.gov.au. Details may also be provided in hard copy, verbally or by email on request.

Inclusion in the Directory is not a recommendation or endorsement by Heritage Tasmania or the Tasmanian Heritage Council of professional qualifications or experience. Inclusion does also not assure an invitation to tender or an engagement of services from any government or non-government agency.

Heritage Tasmania and the Heritage Council rely on you providing a fair and accurate description of your skills, qualifications and expertise in cultural heritage matters. As such, any listings in the directory are not endorsed or accredited by Heritage Tasmania or the Heritage Council and you should not claim as much in your promotional materials or other advertising.
